Through their investigation, they determined that the driver of the stolen vehicle was Jesse Williams. On September 23, 2014, authorities executed a search warrant for the stolen vehicle, and located numerous items associated with drug dealing. Deputies located a quantity of methamphetamine and marijuana, and numerous documents belonging to Mr. Williams and his girlfriend.

On September 18, 2014, Stevens County sheriff's deputies located Jesse Williams at a residence. Inside the residence, deputies located a locked plastic gun box. When questioned, all individuals present denied ownership of the black gun box. However, Mr. Williams was later identified as the owner of the box. A search warrant was obtained for the box and executed on September 19, 2014. Inside of the box was a loaded .45 caliber semiautomatic handgun along with an ounce of methamphetamine and digital scales.
